

Epina y Business and Enterprise School

Macmillan Cancer Support

Another fantastic event, Enterprise pupils hosted a coffee morning as part of the World's Largest Coffee Morning and raised a fantastic £367. Well done and thank you to everyone who came and supported this charity event.

RUE'S REMARKS!

Things move quickly here... new woodland facilities, new sensory equipment, what's next ... Café Epina y Christmas lunches, I have heard they are something special so make sure you get booked up as places are limited.

Also this month we have had an Investors in People review, I am so pleased with the outcome and that it reflects a happy and supported staff team.

Maths Week

During week 6, pupils took part in a variety of maths activities linked to other countries, including playing board games from Africa and Asia. As part of this week, pupils from Epina y, Marine Park and Jarro w Cross schools got together to work together on multiplication challenges, a tangram - a Chinese dissection puzzle, and produced some collaborative art work based on the work of the Russian artist Kandinsky. Pupils enjoyed the week, the activities and the time spent with other children.

People and Places

Cloud Singh visited Class 5 as part of the topic -People and Places. They learned about the culture and religion of Sikhs and in particular how Cloud Singh has converted to Sikhism and how he follows his religion. He shared many photos and images of Sikhs around the world, at home and in prayer.

PE and Sports Curriculum

A great start to the term with our KS4 PE Options group attending Temple Park gym, following an induction on the gym equipment, pupil are working hard to increase their levels of fitness and gaining an understanding of health and well-being.

And another 2 amazing Wanderers events, cross country and football....yes we smashed it again! Well done.

Wallington Hall

Class 1 visited Wallington Hall where they walked in the woods and found conkers, acorns and a baby rabbit. Pupils knew it was Autumn as leaves had fallen off the trees and were all colours; red, yellow, orange and brown. The class helped to tidy all the leaves away.

Epina y Teaching School Partnership

Epina y School is so pleased to continue its work with the National College of Teaching and Leadership - establishing networks, supporting people into teaching, offering training, professional and leadership development and school to school support. Plus planning a 2nd Regional SEND conference. Click on the Teaching School link on our website for information.

Photographs Galore

Fantastic to have Halo photographers in school, not only some beautiful individual pictures but the class photos are phenomenal as well.

We are delighted to be able to use lots of these shots around school and on our school marketing materials. We are also delighted with the feedback from our social media pages, very happy to share what goes on in our school.
